PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1. Michigan State University College of Human Medicine (MSU-CHM)
January 2016 - present

Associate Dean for Public Health Integration

June 2019 – present

I serve as 1 of 8 members on the Dean’s Head of Operations (HOPs) Leadership Team and support college operations, including annual budgeting and allocations (total annual operating budget/allocation is $66.8 million, not including tuition, research funding and clinical revenue). As a major academic unit (MAU) Chair/Director on this team, I worked closely with the Dean and Chief Financial Officer to develop a new funding model for FY20 for the college which includes 26 MAUs, including 2 basic science departments, 20 clinical departments, and 4 social/behavioral science and research departments/units. I also provide strategic leadership and accountability to shape and implement college and university-wide public health initiatives in research, education, community outreach and engagement, and service. In the past year, I also developed guidance for a new school of public health at MSU and led the Provost’s Public Health Steering Committee.

Director, Division of Public Health

June 2017 – present

I am the administrative and programmatic leader of the Division of Public Health, established in January, 2015 as a community-engaged public health program at the MSU-CHM Flint campus. I left Hopkins in 2016 to join this Division as an Endowed Professor in the midst of the Flint Water Crisis, and less than a year later I began assuming administrative responsibilities for the Division. When I started in 2016, there were 15 staff and 4 faculty. The Division currently has 31 faculty, 120+ staff, $64 million in external grant funding, and a $7.6 million operating budget. I served as the Interim Director from June 1, 2017 - May 31, 2019 and was installed as the permanent Director June 1, 2019. In addition to full fiscal responsibility for the Division, I am responsible for faculty, staff, and student success and evaluation.

Associate Chair of Public Health and Clinical Integration, Department of Family Medicine

January 2018 - present

I provide programmatic leadership for public health and clinical integration initiatives. I serve on the Executive Committee and work directly with the Department Chair on strategic planning, implementation, and evaluation of departmental, hospital- and community-based public health initiatives.

C.S. Mott Endowed Professor of Public Health; Division of Public Health

Professor (with tenure), Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics

January 2016 – present

I initiated and maintain a primarily NIH/HHS-funded program of research focused on community-engaged public health research, outreach and engagement. Primary areas of research include epidemiology, health equity and health disparities research. I am the PI of an NIH-funded Transdisciplinary Collaborative Center, The Flint Center for Health Equity Solutions.

2. Johns Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health (JHU-BSPH)

April 2007 - present (Adjunct Professor effective March, 2016)

Adjunct Professor

March 2016 – present

Associate Professor

July 2011 - February 2016

Assistant Professor

April 2007 - July 2011

For nine years I maintained an independent research portfolio in areas relevant to: 1) community engaged and community-based participatory research; 2) drug and alcohol dependence epidemiology, prevention, and measurement; 2) violence exposure and prevention in children, adolescents and young adults; and 3) environmental approaches to ATOD and violence prevention, including policy interventions. I was the Director of the NIH/NIDA-funded Drug and Alcohol Dependence Epidemiology Training Program (17 slots; 9 pre-doctoral and 8 post-doctoral); Director of the Drug Investigations, Violence, and Environmental Studies Lab; and Deputy Director and Epidemiologic Surveillance Core Director of the JHU Center for the Prevention of Youth Violence, which implemented the initial Safe Streets/Cease Fire Program in 2 Baltimore City neighborhoods. I also served multiple service roles, mentored junior faculty, lead an annual Summer Training Program for high school and college students in Baltimore City, and served as the inaugural University co-Chair for the Urban Health Institute University-Community Coordinating Council.

3. Pacific Institute for Research and Evaluation (PIRE; Nonprofit research firm Calverton, MD)

January 2003 – February 2009

Research Scientist

January 2006 – February 2009

Associate Research Scientist

January 2003 – January 2006

I co-led the Decennial National Roadside Survey which forms the basis for implementation and evaluation of national drinking driving laws and is the foundation for our nation's first drugged-driving laws. Initiated independent research program in: 1) drug and alcohol policy, drug dependence epidemiology, prevention, and measurement; 2) violence exposure and prevention in children, adolescents and young adults; and 3) environmental approaches and structural interventions for ATOD and violence prevention. Collaborated with investigative teams within the Prevention Services Research Institute branch of PIRE and participated in methodology workgroup meetings across sites and institutes within PIRE. Maintained existing and established new working relationships with investigators outside of PIRE. Mentored junior scientists within PIRE. Extensive primary data collection oversight and management. Served as a member of the PIRE Institutional Review Board (IRB).

4. Morgan State University January 2002 – June 2003

Assistant Professor

January 2002 – June 2003

I initiated independent prevention research grants in high-risk youthful populations in school, family, and neighborhood contexts. Taught Epidemiology I and II, Advanced Applications of Statistical Packages, Research Methods I, and co-taught Drug Use in Minority Populations. Mentored students, served on Doctoral committees, chaired 2 Doctoral committees, served on Curriculum Committee and Self-Study Group for Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH) Accreditation. Assisted in development of Public Health Program CEPH accreditation packet and served as CEPH Accreditation Steering Committee Chair.

The Flint Center for Health Equity Solutions (FCHES) is a Transdisciplinary Collaborative Center (TCC) for Health Disparities Research on Chronic Disease Prevention within the DHHS-defined Region 5. The TCC targets its initial activities within Flint, Michigan, with scope and reach of Center activities more generally across the state through the Michigan State University Extension Program, and nationally through Consortium Partners.

The Prevention Research Center of Michigan Health Promotion Through Environmental Design (HPTED): A Transformative Approach for Community Engagement and Health Equity ($7,424,000)	10/01/19-9/30/24
U48DP006397 (PI: Zimmerman)
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Principal Investigator
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
This project will employ a newly developed health promotion model, the Health Promotion Through Environmental Design (HPTED) Model to explore social determinants of health, evidence-based practices and policies, and community activism as a means to promote health equity in a city in distress. The proposed research is grounded in theory and practice, is multi-disciplinary and translational.

The Legacy Effects of Discriminatory Housing Policies on Community Availability of Alcohol ($406,876)	02/01/19-01/31/21
R21AA026674A1 (PI: Sadler)
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Investigator/mentor
National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism
This project will utilize geographic information systems to combine historical patterns of housing discrimination with contemporary community availability of alcohol to understand the legacy effects of redlining, blockbusting, and other forms of discrimination on rates of alcohol exposure and consumption. Building this knowledge base is essential for researchers, policymakers, and practitioners working in the fields of housing, urban planning, and public policy to understand and begin to address the pernicious and long-standing effects of living in neighborhoods suffering from disinvestment.

The Enhanced Parenting Project ($2,079,755)	02/01/19-01/31/21
6H79TI080350 (PI: Senters-Young)
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Investigator and Evaluator
Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration

This project provides enhanced behavioral health support services for opioid-dependent pregnant and post-partum women and their families in 14 counties in Michigan. This community-academic partnership includes the Flint Odyssey House, Inc and the Michigan State University Division of Public Health.

Research to Reduce Disparities in Disease (R2D2; $639,466)	07/01/18-06/30/22
1R25HL140319 (PI: Neighbors)
National Heart Lung and Blood Institute
Furr-Holden Role: Faculty
The Research to Reduce Disparities in Disease program trains medical students in a combined medical and public health approach to confront racial and ethnic disparities in CVD. This program will train students to conduct community-based translational research on disparities and addresses the NIH's concerns regarding the shortage of physician scientists from groups underrepresented in medicine (URiM).

CE19-001, University of Michigan Injury Prevention Center 2019-2024 ($4,201,354)	08/01/19-07/31/24
R49-CE-003085 (PI: Carter)
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
Furr-Holden Role: Faculty (in-kind)
The University of Michigan Injury Prevention Center is a comprehensive ICRC that integrates all phases of injury prevention and control, across the spectrum of age groups. The Center is supplemented by the vast educational, research, outreach and policy resources of the University of Michigan (UM), whose injury personnel are ready to address the burden of injury in Michigan and the Great Lakes Region.

Healthy Flint Research Coordinating Center ($600,000)	07/01/16-ongoing
GA100492 (PI: Furr-Holden)
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Founder and MSU Co-Lead
MSU Provost and Vice-President of Research-funded
This HFRCC is a multi-institutional research coordinating center conducted in partnership with the Michigan State University, the University of Michigan, the University of Michigan-Flint, and grass roots community partners including Community-Based Organization Partners and The National Center for African American Health Consciousness. Our goal is to maximize the benefit of Flint-based research for the Flint community and ensure equitable involvement of grass-roots community partners in research.

Completed Research Support

Alcohol Policies to Prevent and Reduce Youth Violence Exposure ($1,048,311)	09/01/15-08/31/19
1R01CE002682 01 (PI: Furr-Holden)
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
This project addresses gaps in knowledge regarding the effects of alcohol outlet density and availability (AODA), and structural interventions, namely alcohol policies designed to decrease density and restrict access to alcohol, on youth violence. This is the first study of its kind to examine this relationship with children and adolescents and represents the most comprehensive evaluation of structural interventions focused on alcohol policies to prevent and reduce violence.

Invest Health – Flint ($60,000)	04/30/16-12/31/18
(PI: Furr-Holden)
Robert Wood Johnson Foundation
Furr-Holden Role: Team Co-Lead and Project PI

Invest Health is a new initiative that brings together diverse leaders from mid-sized U.S. cities across the nation to develop new strategies for increasing and leveraging private and public investments to accelerate improvements in neighborhoods facing the biggest barriers to better health. The program is a collaboration between the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and Reinvestment Fund.

Genes, Environment and Drug Use in Three Baltimore Cohorts ($729,000)	07/01/15-05/31/18
1R01DA036525-01A1 (PI: Maher)
National Institute of Health
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Investigator
This Post-GWAS study of drug use trajectories takes advantage of genetic, environmental, and developmental phenotypic data in 3 cohorts ascertained by the Johns Hopkins Prevention Intervention Research Center (PIRC).

Hopkins Center for Health Disparities Solutions ($11,557,772)	06/12/12-06/11/17
2P60MD000214 (PI: LaVeist)
National Institute for Minority Health and Health Disparities
Furr-Holden Role: Project PI and Center Faculty
Hopkins Center for Health Disparities Solutions (HCHDS) primary objective is to be a national resource for addressing health disparities. We seek to establish and institutionalize a focused emphasis on health disparities research, training and community engagement utilizing the resources of the Johns Hopkins Schools of Public Health, Medicine and Nursing.

Drug Dependence Epidemiology Training Program ($4,205,700)	07/01/13-06/30/18
T32DA007292 (PI: Furr-Holden)
National Institute on Drug Abuse
The long-term goal of this training program is to increase the number and quality of quantitatively adept epidemiologists and public health scientists with a career commitment for NIDA's mission in relation to epidemiology and prevention research.

JHU Center for the Prevention of Youth Violence ($5,491,351)	09/15/11-12/31/17
U01CE001954 (PI: Leaf)
Center for Disease Control and Prevention
Furr-Holden Role: Associate Center Director
This Center seeks to increase the use of effective practices in local communities and to determine factors that can affect the pathways to violence.

Progression and Clustering of Marijuana Use in African American Neighborhoods ($228,766)	07/01/12-06/30/15
5R01DA032550-03 Wake Forest Sub Contract (PI: Ialongo)
National Institute on Drug Abuse
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Investigator
By using innovative statistical techniques and measures of the social and neighborhood environment, new understandings of the course of marijuana use and the influence of factors that are more salient in this population will lead to the development of culturally appropriate prevention programs targeted at urban-dwelling African Americans for whom effective programs are needed.

Center for Prevention and Early Intervention ($1,568,732)	07/01/09-4/30/14
P30MH086043 (PI: Ialongo)

National Institute on Mental Health
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Investigator
The mission of the Center is to improve preventive and treatment interventions by bridging epidemiologic, intervention and services research through the development of a research structure and research strategies capable of evaluating the effectiveness of sustainability of promising an evidence based interventions; identifying factors that inhibit facilitate improved prevention and treatment practices and outcomes, and disseminating knowledge gained in order to improve prevention and treatment research practices.
Maryland Safe and Supportive Schools Project	10/01/11-9/30/14
125431 (PI: Bradshaw)
State of Maryland
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Investigator
Provide consultation to the Maryland State Department of Education (MSDE) regarding the design of the MDS3 Project and collection of the MDS3 School Climate Survey data.
JHU Center for the Prevention of Youth Violence ($4,100,741)	09/15/05-09/14/10
1 U49 CE000728-011 (PI: Leaf)
Center for Disease Control and Prevention
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Investigator, Director of Epidemiologic Surveillance and Community Engagement
Center to increase the use of effective practices in local communities and to determine factors that can affect the pathways to violence.
Environmental Strategies for Violence and AOD Prevention ($3,507,715)	04/01/05-07/31/12
R01 AA 015196 (PI: Furr-Holden)
National Institute on Alcoholism and Alcohol Abuse
The investigation seeks to classify both individual- and community-level distributions and determinants of violence and alcohol and other drug (AOD) exposure by identifying environmental factors associated with increased neighborhood violence and AOD exposure among youth.
Administrative Supplement for Students & Science Educators under the Recovery Act ($232,165)	07/15/09-08/31/12
3R01AA015196-05S1 (PI: Furr-Holden)
National Institute on Alcoholism and Alcohol Abuse
Support the research training and development of 26 high school and college students, as well as 2 public school science teachers to engage in Summer research.
Data Driven Health Initiatives ($10,000)	01/01/09-02/28/10
Internal Funding (PI: Furr-Holden)
Johns Hopkins Urban Health Institute
This project bridges resources, agencies, and data to further local health promotion initiatives, specifically in the area of children's exposure to violence and create a database that can be used in future urban health promotion initiatives across a broader range of topics.
Understanding Neighborhood and Environmental Risks for HIV and AIDS ($10,000)	01/01/09-02/28/10
Internal Funding (PI: Furr-Holden)
Hopkins Center for Health Disparities Solutions

This investigation provides data to advance the evidence base for environmental strategies and ultimately enhance the comprehensiveness and effectiveness of existing HIV intervention programs in Baltimore and provide a model for use in other urban locations.

Pilot: Measuring the Impact of Municipal Alcohol Outlet Intervention on Violence Exposure in Youth ($31,446)	04/01/08-02/28/10
JHU Center for the Prevention of Youth Violence (PI: Furr-Holden)
Center for Disease Control and Prevention JHU Center for the Prevention of Youth Violence
This project aims to determine the feasibility of measuring the impact of alcohol outlets on violence exposure in youth residing in Baltimore City, Maryland.

Measuring Alcohol Use Disorders at the Roadside ($375,356)	04/01/05-03/31/07
R21 AA 015543 (PI: Furr-Holden)
National Institute on Alcoholism and Alcohol Abuse
This investigation pilot tests and refines a brief screener for alcohol use disorders (AUDs) among participants in the National Highway Safety and Traffic Administration (NHSTA) Decennial National Roadside Survey (NRS) Pilot Program.

2007 Roadside Survey of Alcohol and Drugged Driving ($4,883,858)	09/14/06-06/14/10
DTNH22-06-C-0040 (PI: Lacey)
National Highway Traffic Safety Administration
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Principal Investigator
This study estimated the incidence of alcohol-positive and drugged driving on our nations roadways.

Estimating the Prevalence of Alcohol Use Disorders among At-Risk Drivers ($892,867)	09/01/07-02/28/09
R01 AA 016407 (PI: Furr-Holden)
National Institute on Alcoholism and Alcohol Abuse
This investigation pilot tests and refines a brief screener for alcohol use disorders (AUDs) among participants in the National Highway Safety and Traffic Administration (NHSTA) Decennial National Roadside Survey (NRS) Pilot Program.

Prevention of Young Adult Drug Use in Club Settings ($1,150,221)	04/01/05-03/31/07
R01 DA 018770 (PI: Miller & Furr-Holden)
National Institute on Drug Abuse
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Principal Investigator
This investigation tests relationships between three major domains (host characteristics/influences, venue/event setting characteristics, and participant characteristics) associated with young adult (18-25 years of age) drug use, as well as drug-related and other problems in club settings where electronic music dance events (EMDEs) are held.

Using Randomized Incentives in Prevention Research ($74,388)	08/15/03-02/28/05
R03DA017105-01 (PI: Furr-Holden)
National Institute on Drug Abuse
This investigation pilot tested and refined an approach that uses randomized incentives to recruit youth into a preventive intervention geared to increase awareness about the harmfulness of inhalant drug use. Youth aged 12 to 17 were recruited from local markets and youth "hot spots" via street-intercept surveys, and a brief assessment will be administered. Then, youth will be invited to participate in a brief educational intervention on the hazards of inhalants use. Hard refusals were offered varying incentives assigned at random (ranging from $5 to $25). The goal of this proposed investigation was to estimate the thresholds of incentives needed to induct youth into drug abuse prevention research and identify factors related to a propensity to engage in these types of programs (e.g. gender, age, history of drug involvement).

Pending/Under Review/Revision Research Support

Epidemiologic Surveillance to Promote Racial Equity in Opioid Prevention, Treatment and Recovery ($1,956,250)	03/01/21-02/28/26
R01 MD016164 (PI: Furr-Holden) – under review
National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities
This project seeks to (1) clarify historical, longitudinal and emerging epidemiologic trends of racial and ethnic disparities in opioid-involved overdose death in the United States; (2) explore the social and political determinants of health that influence historical and emerging trends in opioid-involved overdose deaths; and (3) evaluate equity in the distribution of policy interventions and resources designed to reduce opioid misuse and opioid-involved overdose death and their impact on racial and ethnic disparities in opioid-involved overdose death.
The Opioid Prevention Project (OPP): A Community Participatory, Multi-Level Implementation Trial to Prevent and Reduce Opioid Misuse and Overdose ($3,566,839)	07/01/19-06/30/24
R01 DA048400 (PI: Furr-Holden) – under revision
National Institute on Drug Abuse
This project will establish a community participatory, GIS-based method for identifying place-based opioid prevention needs; implement a comprehensive, data-informed, community-level opioid prevention strategy; and use this knowledge to advocate for evidence-based policy to support comprehensive opioid prevention efforts. These findings will be of great importance to researchers and practitioners to combat the opioid epidemic.
Barriers and Facilitators to Genomic Research Participation in the Context of Population Mistrust ($426,250)	04/15/19-04/14/21
R21 HG010532 (PI: Smart) – under revision, received 36 priority score
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Investigator/mentor
National Human Genome Research Institute
This project will examine genomic research participation in Flint, Michigan, a diverse population with a high level of mistrust. We will examine how Flint’s rates of genomic research participation differs from other parts of the U.S.; whether a variety of factors including race, and mistrust of government or researchers affects respondents’ genomic research participation; and which barriers and facilitators to genomic research participation exist among respondents.
Environmental Risk, Impulsive Choice, and Adolescent Alcohol Use Trajectories in Low Resource Communities. ($334,571)	04/01/19-03/31/23
R34 HD098124 (PI: Felton) – under revision
Furr-Holden Role: Co-Investigator
Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development
This project will examine early environmental risk factors and their influence on decision-making and engagement in subsequent risky behaviors across adolescence. These findings will be used to improve targeting of interventions in at-risk populations.

Center of Excellence for Dissemination and Implementation Science in Underserved Communities (DISCo; $7,297,085)	09/01/20-08/31/25
U54 MD012537 [MPI's: Furr-Holden (contact PI) and Drahota] – received a 33 priority score; under revision pending new FOA
Role: Principal Investigator
National Institute for Minority Health and Health Disparities/NIH
The DISCo will establish a National Center of Excellence for dissemination and implementation (D&I) science of health disparities research and interventions in underserved communities. The Center will serve as a national focal point for D&I research and technical assistance, as well as provide training opportunities for early stage investigators. The research project will implement evidence-based programming in an entire school district in Michigan.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Brief Personal Statement: My research is focused on community-engaged translational research, specifically environmental strategies for violence, alcohol, tobacco, and other drug (VATOD) prevention, treatment, and recovery; place- and context-based prevention strategies, psychometrics and structural interventions, including policy interventions to improve behavioral health and health equity. In the past decade, I have worked substantively in the field of violence, alcohol, tobacco and other drug prevention among children, adolescents and young adults; highway and traffic safety, including epidemiologic studies of drug- and alcohol-involved drivers; and community studies of health equity. In addition, I have worked extensively with local policy makers to drive legislation related to alcohol outlet density reduction and other environmentally-based drug and violence prevention strategies. More broadly, my research is centered on public health solutions for solving health inequities and innovations for drug and violence prevention.

Although I maintain a national portfolio of research, my passion is working in the local context and in academic leadership. I spent more than a decade implementing policy-based initiatives in Baltimore, MD. In 2016, I relocated to Flint, MI and became a Charles Stewart Mott Endowed Professor in the newly formed Division of Public Health at Michigan State University College of Human Medicine. Prior to my official start (January 4, 2016), I submitted (December 16, 2015) and was subsequently awarded (July 20, 2016) the NIH-funded Flint Center for Health Equity Solutions. In June 2017, I became the Interim Director of the Division of Public Health, a role I informally assumed several months prior. I was installed as the permanent Director in June, 2019. I provide full administrative oversight of the Division (equivalent to a Department Chair) which has grown tremendously under my leadership, generating more than $64 million in external funding in less than 4 years since our inception. The Division has grown from 4 to 31 faculty and less than 20 to more than 120 staff under my leadership. I am also actively working with local businesses, foundations, and key stakeholders to raise endowment and other funds for the Division. In June, 2019 I become the Associate Dean for Public Health Integration, working collaboratively across the health colleges and the university to strengthen the public health infrastructure at MSU, including building a school of public health.

I am deeply committed to the training and development of junior scientists at all levels from piquing interest in science careers in grade school children, providing internships to high school, college and post-baccalaureate students, pre-Doctoral and post-Doctoral training, and mentoring of early stage investigators and junior faculty (note: I am an active mentor on 3 NIH-funded K awards and founded the Health Equity Research Summer Scholars Program which has run in some form for nearly 20 years).

My current position includes implementing population-level research and policy solutions for behavioral health equity; academic administration and program development; promoting institutional equity, diversity and inclusion; relationship building with community to build collaborative initiatives and partnerships; fundraising; faculty development and retention; institutional approaches to shared governance; and bridging cross-unit and university-wide research and academic collaborations.

Keywords: Community-engaged Research, Health Equity Research, Health Disparities, Health Policy Research, CBPR, Environmental Strategies, Epidemiology, Youth, Drugs, Alcohol, Violence, Dissemination and Implementation Science, Program Evaluation, Mentoring, Academic Administration, Fundraising, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI).
